

2019 MAS / IMA® Teaching Case Conference

Application for Travel Assistance

Purpose:

Many instructors would like to present at or attend the MAS/IMA® (Institute of Management Accountants) Teaching Case Conference but lack financial travel support. Sponsored by IMA, this travel assistance recognizes a professor who has shown strong commitment to teaching or curriculum improvement in the area of cost/management accounting education and lacks the funds to attend the meeting. The award provides travel assistance up to $1,000 USD.

Award Selection Criteria:

Applications will be judged using the following criteria:

- Evidence of commitment to teaching or curriculum improvement in the area of cost/management accounting education
- Desire to use or experience with the case method of teaching
- Evidence of financial need
- Preference will be given to those who serve as an IMA Campus Advocate or who provide other service to the management accounting profession

Eligibility and Application Procedures:

Individual full-time faculty members are eligible to apply. A completed application consists of the following:

- A. Application letter (1 page maximum) discussing the following areas:
 1. Desire to attend the MAS/IMA Teaching conference and what you hope to learn.
 2. Commitment to teaching or curriculum improvement in the area of cost/management accounting education.
 3. Financial need.
 4. Service as an IMA Campus Advocate or other service to the management accounting profession (if any).
 5. Department chair name and email address and the department website URL.

Travel Assistance Award Committee:

Representatives of IMA assisted by MAS Case Conference co-directors as needed.

Submit application:

- Deadline: ~~September 15, 2019~~ extended to September 23, 2019!
- Send to Steve Smith, Conference Co-Director, stevesmith@byu.edu
- Winner will be announced by September 27, 2019!